21:36If you lose your cd key then its your problem and not ours

Ethenal, if u complaint about the other post, why not about this quoted above. This reply deserves a -10 in a base 1 to 10.

Contact Westwood. If you registered your copy, then ask for identification, and how to solve the problem.

Hoping this will work.

GeneralCF

Westwood is gone, and Matix is immature. We already knew that.
