I'm not much of an aircraft user myself but I do find myself against them in a light tank often. They are annoying. Usually in Walls you can get bacj to your base before it does any major damage. In city I'll usually be a n00bjet (one of the few times I'll use them =P) and often snipe flying vehicles. And also since the server I'm playing on has shells inabled for flying vehs all the easier to capture a n00by teams vehicles and take up their limit.
