Bitch - Female dog, I know several people who use this word legitly on a daily basis.

Damn - Condemn, "Damn you!" - (Condemn you!)

Fuck - Was used back in the day of the bow and arrow. I forget who and who, but they would cut off the middle finger of their enemies, flip them off and say "Fuck you, I can still use my bow."

Shit - S.H.I.T., Ship-High-In-Transit. This term was used on transport ships out at sea. I don't remember what for, but it had something to do with cargo and the hull of the ship.

What makes them 'curse words' are the way you use them.
