The same thing has happened to me, however in reverse, through the use of the internets.

You see, I first started my journey on the internets with impeccable grammar and less-than-perfect spelling. However, through viewing other people on online Renegade and many internet forums, I began 2 talk lik this. Needless 2 say it didnt last very long.

So I then started applying grammar to what I typed. Soon after I upgraded from Dial-up to Cable, and Mozilla firefox. Firefox comes with a "Check as you type" spell checker, so now I am able to post things with a 99% spelling accuracy!

Well anyway, that is my life story on the internets and I hope you all enjoyed it. And it wasn't you people who helped me, so stop lookin' for thanks, ya bunch of moochers! PEACE!
