Havocman*Bump*

Ahhh, the days of yeee Old Flameing of ack.

hahaha HILARIOUS! great line Havocman, great line.

seriously though... why does all of this ALWAYS happen. it seems like everyone cant go more than 5 posts without a flame war erupting. and i mean, its pretty funny but its also insanely childish. i think if EVERYONE just acted with a little more civility and stopped trying to have the last word, this forum could be the community its intended to be rather than the battlefield it is now.

in the future, if things are gettin hot, just everyone take a deep breath and go make a smoothie.
