I have bit of bad news....i had a massive argument with my Little Brother and i was angry so when i found i had been banned from Baddog Gaming servers i went absolutely insane!
I was totally out of controll man...i swore like mad, called the mods names and spammed the server insanely 4 like and hour after i had rejoined after auto-kicked like 200 times....

So i think im in a bit of trouble there

But hey, i tried the nice approach and it kinda worked....i had a long chat with a server mod or someone "StealthEye@IRC" or something...he said that he could not let me in to test me cus i would have to be tested every time i join....
He also said that "It's a server policy" and that "All servers use this policy"

He would not unban me from I.P and put on my bro's nickname bans...i even resorted to begging but he held firm!
It was a BlackIntel or BlackCell server...one of my favourites...

And im banned 4 ever now->It's hard to cope with here man im losing it! I just can't grasp it that after 2 whole years of 0 cheat, no hax of anysorts...a relatively clean record except a incident like this 6-18 months ago

People still discard me and neglect me someone said to me "Nice BIGHEAD hax" and i was so so FURIATED by it!
I never once hacked yet cus of my same I.P as bro people brand me as a haxor....
We're really sorry, but as said, if it would be so easy to detect cheats we would unban you, but it is pretty much impossible. This means that we would have to check you for cheats every time you join. Also, unbanning you would make us having to unban many others too, because they will put up the same story.
