I do not see why Renguard would not give me support and credibility in a haxoring accusation!? I mean it's the most common Anti-Cheat system going for Renegade. Even when i log in on WOL it comes up with recommending Renguard for added securite whilst online...

If Renguard can't do the job it's desighned to do then why would people ever use it!?

And as for luv2pb...with the way you reply to my very very complying posts i would be glad to Ignore You->

But before i take that sorta action i wanna know why you hate me and "want me to die"

I have not done anything that involves you have i!?

And what's with the "#2:wtf? that doesn't make sense" Answer incase you don't understand my question. I meant "Doesn't it conflict with your own FDS if you mod it for whatever purpose"

Meaning in a sense->Won't it fuck you off if you mod the FDS thinking that you hax or something?

Just like BIATCH! Which has given me considerable frustration when i changed the Orca rocket to do 50+ damage
