If people go to concerts for the theatrics rather than the music, then they should just go watch wrestling.

I go to concerts for the live music. I don't want to hear pre-recorded bullshit playing through the speakers while the "artist" does his/her best acting job to make it look like they can belt it out. I'd rather watch a concert with David Draimon walking around on stage, singing than go see a band moving about on stage mouthing the lyrics to their music. I everybody else agreed, but nope... there has to be idiots.
