Actually no, it wasnt I. We had just hired some guy named Darkz to texture it. He did a crap job, so nearing the deadline of this update. I decided to redo the skin. That guy went MIA, and is now fired cuz he hasnt finished a single thing, and like i said before, he went MIA. He was the one who made up that stupid story. Even though everyone told him its way too beat up. Also, if you look at the proxy mine's texture in ren, you'll notice is not too far off from this one. Infact this is less beat up.
