Also, what Spoony says is so true.

the good old Muslim Council of Britain (for Americans, it's basically the UK version of CAIR) has issued yet more demands... islamic values for all children in the country, no drinking alcohol in public, more "modest" clothing (i.e. walking around in a tent, we can't have women wearing clothes that look good because they're basically asking to get raped)...

this is what I've been saying for ages. Islam thinks that its rules apply to everyone, not just Muslims, and we bend over so far backwards to accommodate them that our government will gladly sacrifice everything that makes Britain the awesome place it is (i.e. everything Islam isn't) to get the Muslim vote.

No alcohol in public i think would probably be good for britain.. seriously, the ammount of drunken people seen on the streets these days :/

but the 'tent' thing is just fucking rediculas.
