SBH's are easy as hell to find when you know how to listen for their foot steps... I get blamed of cheating pretty often because an SBH is stupid enough to walk somewhere around me and i hear the footsteps and i see nothing on the radar... or they just stand there looking at you thinking I cant see them and BAM 500 snipe in the head...

LaserChainGunnars are easy to take care of as well. even with a GDI soldier. as I said, the GDI Soldiers do more damage then NOD. and most of NOD's heads are easier targets becuae of the black and red and some of them have "larger" heads then their GDI counterpart...

Chem Troopers are the prime example of this. no mater what Infantry you are, a Chem trooper is the easyest to kill... that head that is like 2x the size of an sbh's head...
