The PHP folder in plugins is for the server owner to upload to their website to provide online functionality for the plugin, such as the ranks showing the ranks pages on your website.

And, as I said before in the PM, there are no registered files or anything, BR 1.52 is built in perl and packaged with all the required modules, and is therefore completely standalone.