Yes, Yes. As you know Im the leader of Black Shark Studios. Ive notice recent events with one of our Admins. Horqwer. He has insulted one other company (Bluehell Productions). And to add excessivilally broke BSS rules for Admins. When I met with him online to explain his actions he said insults toward me such as "B*TCH", "F*CKING AHOLE". Therefore I went to ban him. Somehow he had access to the ACP. And banned me from my own site. I deleted the ban Via server and then banned him. IP Range. That means his whole DNS. So he is gone from BSS, And online. Yes, Online.

Him on MSNF YOU, F ONLINE SH*T
(Partally edited so that it would censor that)

He wont be returning for a long time, And from what I can tell he is pissed. So We wont see him, He is no longer a BSS Member. We are sorry for what trouble he cuased. We are extremely sorry for those that recieved his insults.
