At first I was skeptical, but wasn't going to make any decisions or too strong of comments on the game, but once I hear that c&c mode is gone, I gave up all hope.

C&C mode is the one reason I play renegade, it's the one reason everyone here plays renegade. Now, our hope for a retail predecessor to Renegade is gone. My enthusiasm for Renegade 2007 is stronger than ever since I now know that if we don't do it, it will never get done.
