Instead of arguing, how about a "thank you oblivian, you've been great?"

I'll take the lead:

Oblivian, I do not know you well at all, but from what I've heard and from what I have seen, you've been a good addition to the renegade community.

I trust you will be sorely missed.

Good luck with the things you will do after this.

Take care.

Signed:

A fellow renegadier
