Quote:Right, so when George Bush decided to lower your taxes, you complained, but when clinton decided to raise them, you didn't say a word. You my friend, are a screwed up individual.

No, actually, he raised them significantly just so he can get more money to rape Iraqi woman, and raised the ceiling for getting the country into a record amount of debt.

And even though I don't care, Clinton actually eliminated your budget deficit that was greatly increased by Reagan and Bush 1.

And you still fail to answer the part about Republicans taking away your precious civil liberties that you apparently don't care about.
