OKAY. You know what? I know Troop dislikes me, and I know sadukar dislikes me. Thats good because I dislike both of you as well. Its time for some sense to step in here.

Sadukar: What the hell is your problem man? Did your parents abuse you as a kid? Did your girlfriend tell you to go eat shit and die? Perhaps you rejected as some sort of fashion model as a small child? I don't give a damn. And no one else here gives a damn. You think your smart, witty, intelligent, cool for being a total ass hole at every corner? You think people respect you for that? Kid, you don't even know what the real world is like, do you? Or maybe thats your problem. You've experienced too much of it, and you go home to try and act like a big kid on the internet. This is a fucking game forum for christ's sake. Try acting like someone who has half a brain instead of an idiot who has NOTHING BETTER TO DO WITH HIS LIFE THAN TO SIT AROUND AND PUT PEOPLE DOWN A FREAKING REN FORUM. Oh, and you being the big man you are, I'm sure you'll just say, "You faggot", or "Stfu noob". But go ahead man, go ahead. Because it doesn't make you cool, it doesn't make you smart, it doesn't make you witty, it just makes you more of a repulsive, hated, son of a bitch which if you died yesterday, no one would give a fucking shit about.

Troop: You criticize sadukar for having no life, and for being a retard, right? Turn the microscope on yourself once and awhile. Have you ever thought maybe YOU are the retard? That YOU are the one with no life? Hey, for all of his faults, I don't see sadukar posting huge paragraphs of crapping trying to legitimize his own views and make fun of someone else. Your as gutless, stupid, annoying, and hated as anyone else here is. You need to take off the diaper and grow some freaking balls and stop being such an ass whipe to everyone, just like sadukar, so don't even try to make amends for it, because I don't care and no on else here cares.

Both of you: I'm sure being the intelligent and mature people you are, you'll just come and write some huge paragraph about how bad I am, how retarded I am, how much of a noob I am...I couldn't care less. You'll probably just laugh at this at first, but you know what? At the end of the day, even though you may have laughed at ME on a game forum which doesn't even make a shit of a differince, you'll think about how much, real or fake, people hate you in the world, and how much both of you don't matter at ALL in the world's grand scheme of things. If you had any intelligence at all, any balls, any gusto, any witt, you know what you would do? You'de get the fuck off the game forum, go find a girlfriend, go find a sport to play, go find a job, and stop wasting your life harassing other people.
