@ Dover: Lol. I don't know what kind of a Renegade player you are, but when I fire a Rocket at a vehicle, 75% of the time they don't bother to move, or can't move.

You can say WHATEVER you want, you just aren't right. I don't know if you've ever tried using a gunner on stanks in Field, but its pretty retarded and or hard to make contact with one with something that goes so fast and small.

Its really amazing how retarded you are, lmao.

Its really amazing how you criticize without a reason. I would have expected a bit more from a German.
