People on the internet as assholes, don't let them bother you. They are especially vicious if you give them any ammunition. For instance, how/why did you tell them what race you are, or your sexual preference?

Since they know now, it doesn't matter, the only thing you can do is ignore them, and just laugh at them because in reality most of them are just "kids" and are no where near the station in life that you are, so really they are the ones that should be laughed at, and they know it, which is why they pick on you so that they feel better about themselves.

As a general rule don't offer up information about yourself to people on the internet, they will always use it against you. As another general rule, don't take the internet and the few assholes on it too seriously. Most of the people who would call you a faggot and would claim to gut you if they ever saw you are actually 14 year old kids who would pee their pants if you rolled up on them in the real world.
