Back in my Gamerz0ne days, we caught one of their admins using cheat name removed in a Gz0ne server (the little pink/purple message gave him away); they caught him independently of us, but still refused our evidence despite the fact that it simply supported their existing conclusion instead of forcing a conclusion upon them.

2) My recommendations (when it comes to server selection):

If you want a large AOW (>32 player) server, try Jelly or NS. You are probably going to like one or the other, but try your luck with both.

If you want a small AOW (<32 player) server, BC or BI/TK2 (BlackIntel/TheKOSs2) are your best bets.

If you are into the sniping thing, I'd recommend the BI/TK2 sniper server.

You forgot n00bless. They are really good at catching cheaters. They are also a very fair server, even though some of the mods might be jerks sometimes.

also sh1zzl3, nice advantage skins. Do they help you spot people sniping on a bright map?

Those are ericboxem's screenshots.
