@ Dover:

The demo was pretty awesome I thought. Also, one of the guys that appeared on the hud looks like the one in your avatar!

I like the nice units and voice-overs. What I like about the maps (in the demo) were that it is kind of interactive: your units can enter rooms by unlocking doors and even climb stairs!

Anyway, I think it is a great game I got to pick up. So then, I maybe ready when Starcraft 2 comes out right on my birthday ROFL!

I am thinking of getting Homeworld too. Looks awesome.
