Yeah the but the point i'm trying to make it is I am not a hypocrite who makes useless posts and spams and then complains about the fact that there is not enough moderation.

So in other words,

Quote:No because just like with the United States, the majority is full of total idiots and retards and can not be trusted, and shouldn't be trusted with the ability to make any important decisions.

Crimson, Blazer, and the other admins are doing a decent job at moderating. The very same public wanting moderation are the ones who are spamming pleco pictures and doing retarded things like that.

actually means

Quote:I think the moderation is good, because they aren't banning trolls and spammers like me!
