No, it was for my workplace. I was buying this for the company I work for. They have some old data they want to analyze and these are stored in 750MB Zip disks.

And we only have Zip drives that could read upto 250MB. So, we had to buy a 750MB Zip drive...and all were bloody expensive on eBay (and everywhere else) upwards of $60.

I pulled this stunt and got this for $45. And I will get reimbursed hehe!
