scrin you are banned you lamo that is why you can't get in.

Because they are all using an advanced block script so you can't do that barge hack into the game once you are in.
what hack you talked about? i just want to record some cool ingame videos inside full server...
Was probly for advantage skins that you got banned for, though I dunno for sure. And also, the negotiating port with server thing is quite common. I remember there was a guide for fixing it somewhere, but I forgot where.
