Universe is a explosion

Universe is a creation

Maybe the universe is a explosion created by God.

k even if it is logical to that God exists, that in no way proves that Christianity or any other religion is true, which is the main point i ever have in these discussions. It all comes down to faith, but that's garbage as one can have faith in anything.

perhaps i am jesus II.

First thing I've ever seen you post that didn't make shake my head and say. "OMG another Rocko post."

But their isn't proof that God doesn't exist. Nor is their proof that he does exist. It is just a question of faith.
