CarrierII wrote on Fri, 14 March 2008 09:24 This thread is now about random segments of Pascal code - today, a program to write the word lobster on the screen 47569 times :

var
  I : integer;

begin
  For I := 1 to 47569 do
    Writeln('Lobster'); Readln;
end;
```

^OH SHIT CABAL, you have competiton for the c00l3st person in real life! You still get my vote tho
