That is the exact same template he used to use, and the IP you just gave us..
<http://69.77.184.123/> .. the world of warcraft folder on it gave it away that it is matix..he ran that exact thing under the name of stealth-server.

Edit: This made me laugh.. on the Ulti-Serv about us page, it has Toronto - Head Office 155 Commerce Valley Drive, E. Thornhill, Ontario L3T 7T2 as their address. Funny, as ulti-serv's site is hosted on 1and1, yet that address is the address of a hosting provider itself, www.onx.com, who owns the IP you provided, troop

Seems like he just took the address off of onx.com and put it on his own site to make it seem more official.

LOL.
