Cool my tmaxx is an older model with a standard .21 engine. Still a fun toy to mess about with...Although fuel is getting really expensive £25 for a gallon of 25%

Keep the pictures coming.

My tmax is really old, it had a .15 engine i think.

EDIT: I get a US gallon of some special car fuel for £14. My plane fuel (10% and 5%) model technics is £10.
