There are no good games like System Shock nowadays.

mhm... good point good games are rare now. But there are some great that will come. I hope for Spore, for Mafia II, GTA and Deus Ex3. GTA IV seems to be also great.

I really like the GTA games.

First the briefings, the charackters are great! The missions are quite funny. And the City. The advertising, the news, the radio, everything is a good spoof of real life. I spent the first weekend after buying GTA III mostly with exploring the city.
