How strange indeed. Now I am at home at my Vista rig...see if these screens help you at all.

Windows Movie Maker should be right here:

If not, then type in the Search bar and it should show up:

Also, which version of Vista do you have? I have Ultimate.

EDIT:

Please tell me what version of Vista you own. I think Windows Movie Maker IS NOT included in Windows Vista Starter.

not sure..but screw it ill download it form the link given above...
