So what does that mean, you've turned over a new leaf or something?

18:56Question wasn't Horqwer supposed to have a perm ban?

He got around it by making a new account and noone cared enough to ban him again.

This is ridiculously off topic, though.

Well, kinda true but the person that banned me found out that HeavyX101 is HORQWER. He said that i could stay because i behave a little good now!

+My other account is unbanned.
