/fix'd

I'll buy two, Me and you can partaay all night long, baby.

giggity.

I'm game. So long as the balls don't touch - that would be gay.

I'm game, too.

8 P.M at your place?

Won't work due to jet lag (depends on who is traveling). And it will be 2 flights with a stopover in Washington DC OR Philadelphia OR New York City EITHERWAY. And then ground travel time (bus, train, taxi) and their expenses. Too much cost for one good night of fun, I say!

LMAO

Then come for the weekend or hell just stay a while week. You could get a direct flight into Mitchell International (Milwaukee) btw.

Also, do we really need two? There has to be a multiplayer or something for that thing. I don't have two wii's.
