lol, that was made public knowledge, I downloaded cheat name removed to see if the new anti-cheat device actually worked. Obviously it did and didn't at the same time. Threw up way too many false positives.

Don't go thinking you have struck gold. Many people know I am still a member of UC, I just changed my name from XeonTeam, to XeonXR6.

The motorbike cost me £1,450. Got a great deal for it being 11 years old! 6,500 Miles on the clock!

Just gotta hope for some better weather so I can get out and ride it more.

Cheers, Andrew.
