Well, seeing as I'm too tired and lazy, I'm not really going to go into details here. NWO is pretty much an elaborate plot of a powerful group on... taking over the world.

Another thing this brings up is the North American Union, which pretty much means that Canada, USA, and Mexico's borders are all going to dissolve, there's going to be one major language, and currency called the "Amero."

North American Union will have the same idea as

European Union

African Union

and the soon to be Asian Union

All done by the same people. They're all soon going to be merged together as the final stage of NWO.
