Here are two pics of the Grease Gun for the mod C&C Plastic Revolution.

Hope you all like it .

I am aware the hands are not in the right position, I am still learning how to put hands in the proper areas.

I was just excited and took a pic of the Grease Gun for you all to see.

(By the way, the character is not what we are using, that is just a retextured Renegade character for us to use for weapon demonstrations and such until we get a Character Modeler.

Also this map is not going to be used, it is just a test map to test things out on.
Tell me what y'all think.

Thanks,
N1warhead.
