Thanks. Indeed, some effects were used but I guess the encoding was enough of an "effect" .
Anyway, thanks for the comments.

Any suggestions as to where should I be going to try and gather some people ? Or just spam every C&C site I can find on the Net ?

I'm asking this because it's my first time actually that I'm doing a marketing campaign (if I can call it so) and I wanted to hear from as many people's experience as possible.
