Donno for you, but I can't use wasd at the same time as k, so you can't move during tapping the k key.

I invite everyone to just try it during a fierce battle, especially when you're defending a non base defense map, and you'll notice just how much of a cheat it is to have the building's health displayed at the sides.

He said seeing, not moving. But that's easily done as well.
