Erm, some of you are really wrong ^^

Renegadezone is a classic and worlds largest when it comes to drop-off mods and .pkg mods.

Game-Maps is a good and well-updated allrounder (because it's not Renegade-only).

The largest map collections were and are being held privately, the largest mappack you can download for Renegade is the Giga-Mappack from Zocker325. Get it here=

By the way, earlier this year I have updated the "Community sites" part of the Renegade Wiki. Does anyone look at it? You will find tons of links related to our favorite game=

I will update the Wiki in a few days BTW.

This topic here would be good for new user-made stuff. No need to create a single topic for one new file anymore...

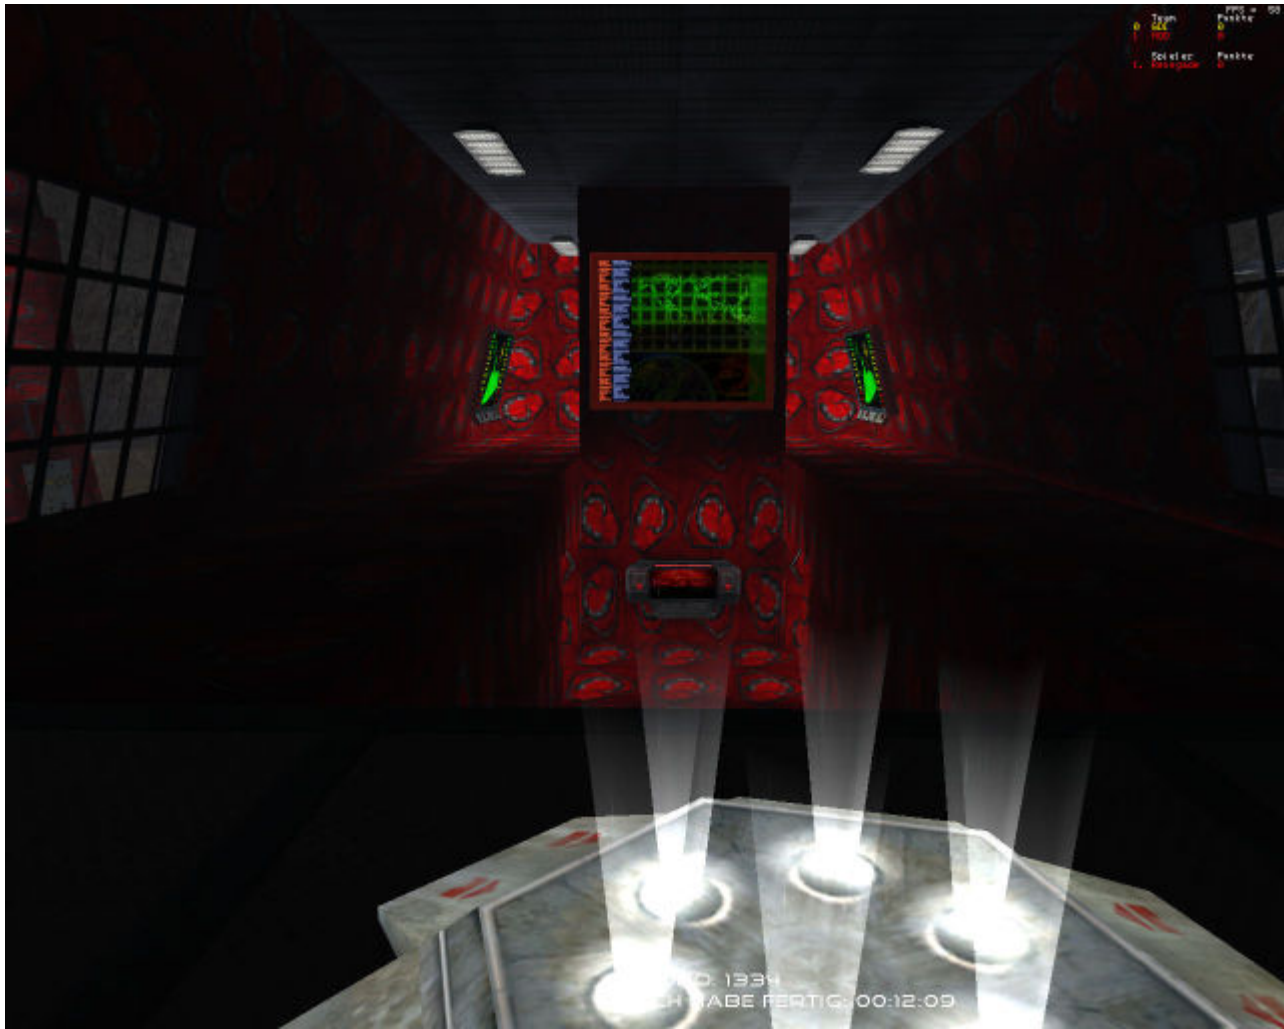

I still released some skins on renforums.com (Fanboys finest, the flags...) so here we go=
