FerhagoPlease, please, please tell me english is not your native language.

Oh. And if you want people to see your plane I would upload it on mod exchange. Forgot the address though he is dutch. And I know him. I'm dutch too, and his message is a combination of dutch and english.

what he is trying to say is:

he made a vehicle and he wants to put it ingame, but it isn't boned. so he wants that someone add bones on it, and put it in the commando.

I think this is what he wants.
