Normally I wouldn't say anything but dude, that's slightly immature of you.

People make the comments they do at you because they want you to learn not to make the same mistakes every time. You make a lot of mistakes, sure, but a lot of people do. This is no reason to leave the forum, in fact, it's a better reason to stay and learn from your mistakes and get better at posting.

But, since you're leaving anyway-

Kbye.
