Would you do meth if it was legalized? No, I wouldn't. It's a damn dangerous drug, but more power to the idiots that want to destroy their lives.

Abortion: for or against it? Against it. Embryo/fetus = human. Humans have the right to life. Rights need to be protected.

Do you think the world would fail with a female president? No...

Do you believe in the death penalty? No. The costs come out about even, as having to pay for all of the damn appeals.

Do you wish marijuana would be legalized already? Yes. People should do to their bodies whatever they wish, as long as the act doesn't directly affect a non-consenting person.

Everything else is abused, why should this, necessarily, be any different?

Are you for or against premarital sex? Neither. I don't care what people do.

Do you believe in God? I believe in a god, but not the God of Islam or the Judeo-Christian god.

Do you think same sex marriage should be legalized? Of course. Again, do with yourselves as you wish as long as you don't negatively impact a non-consenting person.

Do you think it's wrong that so many Hispanics are illegally moving to the USA? Yes. It's still the law. Come on over, if you want, but do it legally.

A twelve year old girl has a baby, should she keep it? She should bear the child, but I don't think she should raise it. Who the fuck lets a 12 year-old have sex, anyway?

Should the alcohol age be lowered to eighteen? Yes. I can die in my government's wars, vote for the idiots that send me to war, blacken my lungs, get carpal tunnel from jacking off to porn legally, and get married without parental consent, but I can't kill my liver? Fuck that. Again, legal adults should have the ability to decide if they want to keep their bodies in good shape or continue to destroy them. As long as they don't drive drunk (and drinking doesn't mean someone is going to drive drunk), I couldn't give a fuck less.

Should the war in Iraq be called off? Yes. We need to give the Iraqis an ultimatum. We can't force them into wanting or keeping a "democracy". Fighting a war when they don't make any effort to be independent doesn't help, either.

Assisted suicide is illegal: do you agree? Who are we to stop people from deciding they're no longer willing to live, as long as they're stable-minded? Assisted suicide should be legal.

Do you believe in spanking your children? Of course. One shouldn't over-do it on the spanking, but it is a punishment that gets kids to straighten their acts quickly.

Would you burn an American flag for a million dollars? I wouldn't do it for the money. That's complete disrespect. I would, however, burn it in protest of how wayward my government is. Then if someone gave me a million dollars, I'd gladly accept it.

Who do you think would make a better president? McCain or Obama? I would have to say McCain, but I don't think either will be any good, and I won't vote for either. We need someone who will actually bring back America to where the founding fathers intended it to stay.

Are you afraid others will judge you from reading some of your answers? I'm not afraid. I welcome their judgments as I stand strong in my opinions.
