And the several minutes that others need to spend to read your unwillingness to spend any effort at finding what you want is, ofcourse, irrelevant. Because hey, you got the answer that you were looking for and who cares about anyone else?

Now you're talking. Gooooo narcissism!

Anyway, why don't you just relax a little bit. There's no need to be so hostile over a question. I answer stupid questions about Renegade all the time in the Mod Forums, and over AIM! I can also do it without coming off as a total prick, too! Try it sometime.
