ip: 173.66.221.11
port: 2121

well.. you'd better wait for a more stable fix

Its not in the rotation its just on the server for testing and fabian knows that. talked to him all last night about the map.

on further review, the ob firing range is fine. you can hit gdi with arties in several positions not just one. over the top is pretty much even for both teams.
