L3f7H4nd3dCouldn't this be better handled in a PM? :rolleyes:

No it couldn't. I handled this incident that happened, and I wanted Cody to publicaly apologize for what he did. There is also a warning going out to anyone else that tries to hijack an IRC channel. You will be delt with severly. Cody was lucky. We never really expected this to happen and it was somewhat harmless. But if stuff like this happens again on n00bstories or Forces of Diversions IRC servers again, the penalties will be perminant.
