Naturaly you all payed for your $3,500 copies.

or maybe you opted for the cheaper but 15 month time limmited student copy.

Max is not cheap and it's more than a little patronising to act all pompus when it's damn unlikely you paid for yours. A lot games developers have at least a few unlicensed versions installed so it's hardly unreasonable that he asked. However I understand that advertising piracy isn't a good idea.

Have you downloaded GMAX?

Unless you already know MAX then you'd be better off starting with something simpler before you get too involved in MAX. Also it's free which is a hell of a lot better than shelling out 3 grand.
