People actually played fan maps back then.

But now only UNrues and some other Mappack servers which are not even active are up.

I guess alot of the people who play would rather just play the same old Westwood maps over and over, and over again (and arty wore to get MVP) instead of playing the Fan maps and being a n00b again.

But yes I still play.

Oh and I forgot the "PF" will encourage more arty woring.
