I believe it's time for a fresh face in the Global Moderator crowd- a Canadacdn face.

I argue that I should become global moderator in order to ensure the security and prosperity of Renegade Public Forums. Currently all of our current global mods aside from Doitle (who does not visit the forum very often) are based in Europe or the United Kingdom, leaving our forums vulnerable to spam or other bullshit quite often when they are offline.

Secondly, why is Warranto still a global moderator? He hasn't visited Renforums since October! I believe I would be the ideal candidate to fill this vacant position.

Canadacdn for Global Moderator '09 is your ideal choice for Global Moderator.
