I need to know what the .dds file is called for the red glowing parts on the obelisk. (the ray etc.) when you look at the picture from the inside you see that there is one texture that is still red. I need to know how that file is called aswell.

Please help me out

I have tried to do this, there is no dds

wtf is wrong with the humvee

Freakish screenshot of the humvee inbetween being destroyed and respawning as a wreck. Look at the armor lol.
