poke of thought for people who haven't actually done any research: The entire book of Exodus is scientifically proven, with respect to the physical things science can prove.

Funny you say that, cos the Israeli archeologists tasked to prove the whole flight-from-Egypt business had to eventually admit that the whole thing was almost certainly made up.

There are no records of the jews ever been enslaved by the egyptians, and the egyptians surely would of documented the enslavement of a whole people.
