Of course it's not going anywhere constructive. Even if my use of language wasn't 100% accurate (Oh, check the rules again... something in there about this NOT being a literature forum...) I still acted because his post was unneeded.

Now either present a valid complaint, in a mature fashion, or expect your topics to be locked.

In the mean time, I will keep these forums in some degree of order so you can read without having to scroll past spam or trolling, I'd like to think this place can achieve something.
